

a: one point per trained model, black bars are medians. b–d: 400 within-cell bootstrap resamples; margin = observed lower bound − floor upper bound.
The floor is what the read-out reports on fixed-agent arms, where every run encodes the same theory.